

Half Pint Calf Showmanship

NOTE BOLD AND HIGHLIGHTED ITEMS

The Washington County Dairy Promotion Committee will sponsor the Half Pint Calf Showmanship contest on County Fair Sunday, 1:00 p.m., in the Washington County Fair Park Farm Progress Arena. The contest is open to children five to nine years old who are not yet old enough to have a dairy fair entry.

Receive a coupon for one (1) FREE sundae to redeem at the Farm Bureau food stand when you return your registration form no later than June 30.

Children may show either a heifer or bull calf of any dairy breed. For safety reasons they are encouraged to use calves that are born after January 1 of the current year, halter broke and well trained. Safety is very important so all participants are encouraged to use well-trained and gentle animals. Recognizing that animals can be unpredictable, parents are welcome to help their children have a safe and fun experience. In addition, there will be ring helpers available during the show.

The calves need not be clipped and may be shown with either a rope or show halter. If an older child has a calf entered at the fair, it may be used if the younger child is able to safely handle the larger calf.

The children are not required to wear white. Each child will be given a numbered hat and nametag. Children will be divided into age groups.

Children will be judged on their basic showmanship skills. The comments made by the judge will include tips on improving these skills.

Ribbons and prizes will be awarded to all participants.

Return the completed and signed permission slip to Doreen Wesp, 6115 Cty Rd U., Hartford, WI 53027, no later than June 30, and receive a coupon for one (1) FREE Sundae to be redeemed at the Farm Bureau food stand.
